

Prayer request for Week May 25, 2008

{mreflex news/25may08.jpg}Thank you to all who have prayed for the brave men and women who represent, protect and share our culture around the world and at home.

This weekend we celebrate Memorial Day. A day to remember those we have lost, who gave their lives to protect and defend our way of life here in the USA.

We should never forget how fortunate we are to be able to practice our Christian faith freely and without persecution. It is with great thanks to those who believed that Christ would always prevail and that their actions would not be in vain. That we are able to purchase bibles, attend our Christian services, and gather to pray is because of the actions of these men and women. The Lord does not ask us to be violent, but He does ask us to stand up for what is right, let us take the time today to pray for all of those who stand up everyday for what is right, and remember those who died doing it.
